

FY 2023 Tourism Marketing Grant

About the Program:

The Martinsville-Henry County Economic Development Corporation's Tourism Division, VisitMartinsville, is offering a marketing co-op grant designed to assist the local tourism industry with marketing needs. Local tourism related businesses which contribute to the local tax base (Martinsville or Henry County) directly or indirectly are encouraged to apply:

- Hotels
- Campgrounds
- B&Bs/Inns
- Restaurants/Cafés
- Attractions
- Retail & Outlet Stores
- Spas
- Established Events
- Transportation Services

The program's intent is to assist businesses in the Martinsville-Henry County tourism industry with the funding of professional marketing services, including the creation and placement of collateral materials. Successful efforts will aid in the stability and growth of these businesses, potentially increasing tax revenue and jobs within Martinsville and Henry County, Virginia.

Awards may be up to $1,000 per business. However, no award shall exceed 80% of the total marketing project. A marketing plan will be required in addition to an application, and awardees must use local service providers when applicable. The grant application process will remain open through December 1, 2022, or while funds are available. For more information, contact Sarah Hodges, Director of Tourism, shodges@yesmartinsville.com
